Importance: High

Expires: Tuesday, March 10, 2020 12:00 AM

To Children, Youth and Families Behavioral Health System of Care Council (bcc'd),

For your information about an All Day Symposium (see below) that Fred Finch is co-hosting with SDSU on November 15th, free to the public.

Join us for a one-day symposium aimed to heighten awareness, knowledge and skills of mental health providers serving Latin families living in Southern CA along the U.S. Mexico border.

We will be examining the challenges experienced by Latinx children, youth and families including trauma, mental health conditions and developmental disorders while deepening our understanding of the factors that increase mental health practitioners' ability to work effectively in humility and cultural competence. Continuing Education Credits available at no cost.

RSVP by clicking below.
